Epstein also said Senator Hathaway wanted to tour all Agency buildings in the Metropolitan Washington area so that he would have a better understanding of the Agency's size, deployment, and activities. I told Epstein this would be quite an extensive plan and I would bring him a list of all Agency locations and what offices were located there and he could choose from the list which buildings he wanted to visit.

25X1 24. [REDACTED] TRAVEL Met with Charlie Kirbow, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, regarding his proposed trip abroad. Kirbow said he was meeting with Chairman Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii) this afternoon and that Chairman Inouye might well disapprove the trip. If he doesn't, Kirbow wants to depart approximately 20 December. I told him

25X1 [REDACTED] that we had no objections to him making the other stops. Kirbow said he would call me as soon as he talked to Chairman Inouye and he would give me his proposed itinerary at that time.

25X1 25. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Howard Liebengood, staff of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and reviewed sanitization made from the notes he took during a visit [REDACTED] I asked 25X1 Liebengood about the Committee's plans on document destruction. Liebengood said that they would hold a Committee meeting on Thursday to discuss the matter and that he hoped destruction approval could be accomplished in a very expeditious manner.

25X1 26. [REDACTED] LIAISON Met with Tom Moore, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and showed him a letter dated 5 September 1976 to the Director [REDACTED] and the 25X1 Director's response. Moore said he had not been able to absorb all the information from his 10 December 1976 review of DDO materials on 25X1 [REDACTED] and would like to look at them again next week.
